

DOE Tour of Zero: Housing for Heroes by United Way of Long Island

Buildings

Buildings » DOE Tour of Zero: Housing for Heroes by United Way of Long Island

“These homes provide aging-in-place features and a healthy environment so they contribute to occupant health.”

- Builder

United Way of Long Island

Deer Park, NY
UnitedWayLI.org
Project: Housing for Heroes
Medford, NY

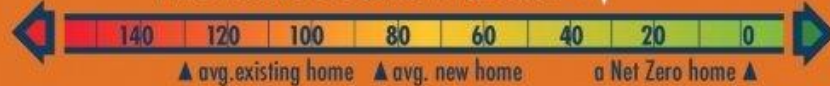

1,936 ft²

4 bedrooms, 2 bath, 1 floor
4A cold, Affordable Multi-Family

HERS 33

This home's score without PV ▼

$150

Average Monthly Energy Bill

Calculated

$2,950

Annual Savings

Calculated versus typical new homes

$119,300

Saved in the First 30 Years

Includes fuel escalation rate, 2020 EIA Energy Outlook

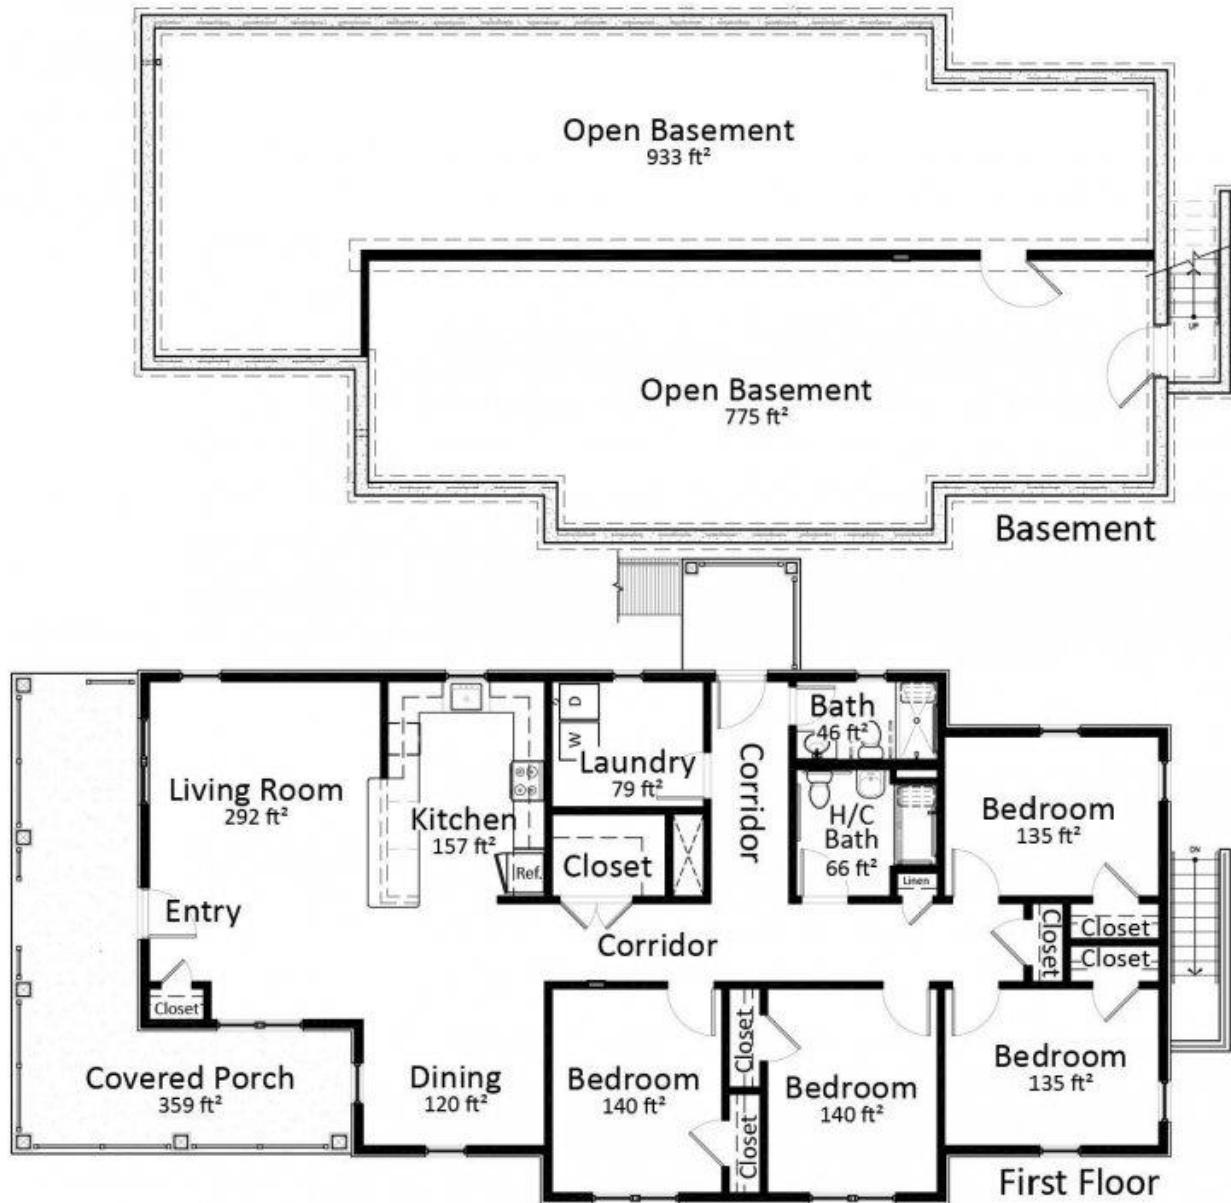

KEY FEATURES

- High-performance insulation system for enhanced quiet and comfort
- Comprehensive draft protection
- Fresh air system for cleaner indoor air
- High-efficiency comfort system
- Energy-efficient appliances and advanced lighting technology for energy and water savings

Click on the box to learn more.

“These homes provide aging-in-place features and a healthy environment so they contribute to occupant health ... Healthy affordable housing should be universally available and attainable for all Americans. It should not be an afterthought or a zoning concession.”

- Builder

United Way of Long Island, Housing for Heroes, 2021